1 A Status Conference in this case is scheduled for September 8, 2008, before Judge Patel.
2 The parties have reached an agreement in principle to settle the case and are attempting to work 3 out the details of the agreement and reduce the agreement to writing, after which time they 4 expect to dismiss the case. The settlement process has been delayed in part due to the need to 5 resolve certain outstanding issues concerning a third party. Ricoh reached an understanding with 6 that third party in June. The parties have continued their discussions for the purpose of revising 7 the settlement and license agreements to take into account these latest developments with that 8 third party. The parties exchanged drafts of the settlement documents again last week, and are 9 working to resolve the final settlement details as soon as possible. It appears possible that only a 10 single issue remains to be resolved. Accordingly, the parties request that the conference be 11 removed from the Court's calendar to give them time to complete the settlement process. The 12 parties request that the status conference be postponed for a further 30 days or until such time 13 thereafter as is convenient for the Court. The parties shall promptly inform the Court if the 14 settlement process is successfully concluded. This motion is supported by the declaration of J.C.
15 Rozendaal pursuant to Civil L.R. 6-2.
